

Are you seeking knowledge and understanding around Indigenous culture, heritage and perspectives?

Would you like to learn more about the impact of residential schools in Canada?

Is your library learning commons culturally relevant and responsive for all members of your school community?

MSLA SAGE Conference

Truth in Our Stories:
Seeking a Path to Reconciliation

TMC Canada Symposium

Culturally Relevant and Responsive
School Library Learning Commons

October 20 – 21, 2017

TMC

Treasure Mountain Canada

School Library Learning Commons
Research Symposium
and Think Tank

A Canadian School Libraries Project

Winnipeg, Manitoba

Invitation to Participate

Keynote: Finding My Place

Melanie Florence, author,
Righting Canada's Wrongs: Residential Schools

Melanie Florence

Selection of 14 One-Hour Workshops

Cultural Displays: Hoop Dancing, Métis Fiddle Music

Vendors and Resource-Providers Booths

Conference Highlights

Tour: Canadian Museum for Human Rights

Camille Callison

Karen Boyd

Keynote Speakers

Karen Boyd, Assistant Superintendent, River East Transcona School Division

Camille Callison, Chair, Canadian Federation of Library Associations
Indigenous Affairs Committee

Canadian Research Papers by colleagues from across Canada

TMC

Treasure Mountain Canada

School Library Learning Commons
Research Symposium
and Think Tank

A Canadian School Libraries Project

Think Tank challenges led by Carol Koechlin, Anita Brooks Kirkland and David Loertscher

October 20 - 21, 2017, Winnipeg, Manitoba

Everything you need to know at: <http://tmc.canadianschoollibraries.ca/tmc5-2017/>

Book the conference hotel by September 21 to receive conference rates.